

108 Gray St. – 3 Br / 2 bath

Ada Royall, the daughter of Peter J. Royall who built two houses at 301 and 305 West Vance Street in the 1880s, had this modest, frame, one-story, Tudor Revival house erected in 1935. The house has a steep gable roof with a large front (southwest) central gable which is bell cast on the southeast and incorporates a small projecting porch on the northwest. Enlivening the façade is an engaged porch in the southeast corner. A large ell with a now enclosed porch occupies the rear elevation. The house was aluminum-sided in the 1960s. At the rear is a one-car, front gable, weatherboard garage.

The interior is inviting and fully restored. There are two baths, three bedrooms, large eat-in kitchen, living, dining and sunroom. There is a full unfinished attic with a pull down ladder. This charming Tudor is ready for you to move in today!

The house is conveniently located in walking distance to the commercial and cultural district. Wilson's location is 40 minutes to Raleigh, an hour to the Raleigh-Durham International Airport, two hours to the beach and five hours to the mountains.
